

Uros Taquile 1 Day

The island is located on the east side of the city of Puno on Lake Titicaca. Appreciate the different style of life, accustoms established by their ancestors. Each island has a main feature; on Taquile appreciate the weaving of a quality only comparable to the looms in Egypt or Paracas. Here you will find extremely friendly locals wearing typical and traditional dress who will always welcome you into their home. They will provide you with a lunch consisting of fresh trout, pejerrey and you will be able to enjoy the lake views surrounded by the impressive snow capped mountains of the real Bolivian mountain range.

The excursion includes a visit to the floating islands of Uros as they are on our route.
